The Wisconsin Network for Early Language Learning (WI-NELL) FLESFEST is an annual one-day conference for those interested in promoting standards-based, Early Start -- Long Sequence world language learning and articulation between FLES (Foreign Language in the Elementary School), middle school, secondary and post-secondary language programs. Started in 1989 as an extension of FLES networking sessions held at WAFLT Fall Conferences in Appleton, WI, FLESFEST provides an opportunity for world language teachers of all levels and programs to share best practices, ideas and challenges, to learn from each other and to offer support for lifelong learning of world languages. FLESFEST is held annually in late February.
